FEEDBACK FROM WORKSHOP ATTENDEES

“Attending Amanda’s workshop has inspired me to really de-clutter and get organised. Starting off in a small area has given me the motivation to keep going and progress through many areas of the home that I used to find overwhelming. Thanks for the inspiration Amanda!”

“Amanda is brilliant and engaging - I leave with a positive outlook to begin tackling my physical clutter”

AMANDA LECAUDE

Organising Expert

Amanda is an experienced organising expert who specialises in reducing overwhelm and stress for her clients, which include students. She regularly speaks at and conducts workshops for small to large audiences on a broad range of organising topics. Amanda provides practical tips, strategies and ideas to her audience to assist them to become more organised.

Amanda is passionate about educating people of all ages, in particular students, and equipping them with life skills such as time management, organisation and priority management. As a mother of two sons both at various stages of their education she understands the importance of equipping students with such skills as early as possible to assist them throughout their lives. Amanda believes though that it is never too late to educate anyone to be better organised as these skills can be learned!

Along with conducting her own workshops, Amanda regularly speaks to local community groups, school groups and parents as well as undertaking workshops for businesses and retail organisations such as Howards Storage World.

Amanda is a regular blogger and contributor of articles to a variety of websites and magazines. Her qualifications include over 20 years corporate experience in project management and organisation and she holds a Bachelor of Business and Arts (Marketing and Japanese).

Amanda is an Expert Member of the Australasian Association of Professional Organisers and has held recent positions at their Executive Level. She has assisted with strategically shaping the future direction of the Association and is responsible for the development of their current website.
